The course will review several aspects of the theory of gravitational radiation: definition, generation by material systems, propagation, multipolar decomposition, radiation reaction, multipolar post-Minkowskian formalism, asymptotic behaviour, emission by binary systems, interface between analytical relativity and numerical relativity, the effective one body formalism, experimental evidence for the reality of gravitational radiation from binary pulsars,...